

THE DIRECTOR OF
CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

National Intelligence Council

26 September 1985

DDCI

Attached are biographical sketches on Vice Admiral Yost and Rear Admirals Cueroni and Robbins. These officers, along with [redacted] Intelligence Coordinator, NNBIS Miami, are paying a courtesy call on you at 0930 hours on Friday, prior to attending a coordination meeting that I am chairing on Intelligence Community support [redacted]

Rear Admiral Cueroni wants all intelligence data to flow through NNBIS Miami; Vice Admiral Yost and Rear Admiral Robbins probably prefer the Coast Guard's Intelligence Coordination Center here in Washington.
